LITURGY & LIFE... Being recognized and being named touches us deeply and can lead to mutual affirmation, respect and healing. We often want to hold on to the moment, but life goes on. This is revealed in the memorial we celebrate in the Eucharist. Reflect on the power of your words. Relish the memory of people you have loved who have died. Allow the experience to one day free you to bring healing, new life and good news to others.

O God, who gladden us year by year with the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection, graciously grant that by celebrating these present festivities, we may merit through them to reach eternal joys. —Collect, Wednesday within the Octave of Easter

Easter Prayer

*O day of Resurrection! Let us beam with festive joy!
Today indeed is the Lord's own Passover, for from death to life, from earth to heaven, Christ has led us as we shout the victory hymn! Christ has risen from the dead!
Yesterday I was buried with you, O Christ, today I rise with you as you arise. Yesterday I was crucified with you; glorify me with you, savior, in your kingdom. Amen.*
